Prevention and Protection - Disability Hate Crime Conference

9.00am to 5.00pm, 4 November 2010 At The Moncur Suite,
Newcastle United FC, St James Park, Newcastle upon Tyne.

Would you know what to do if you witnessed evidence of a disability hate incident or crime? Join us on the 4 November 2010 to find out how to prevent and protect disabled people.

The high profile tragic deaths of David Askew, Fiona and Frankie Pilkington are the latest cases to highlight the current problems in tackling disability hate crime.

Questions are now being asked as to how we can all prevent disability hate crime and also protect those at most risk from experiencing it.

The aim of this conference is to look at the impact of hate crime against disabled people and consider its implications for the wider community.

The contents are appropriate to public, voluntary and private sector bodies and social housing organisations.
