

One Day Moving & Handling Course

Venue: Disability North, The Dene Centre, Castle Farm Road, Newcastle upon Tyne, NE3 1PH

Date: 13 March 2018, 9:30am - 4pm (Registration and coffee 9am)

Cost: £60 plus VAT (refreshments and lunch included)

About the course:

This One Day Moving & Handling of People Course provided by specialist Moving & Handling Advisor Iain Bolton, Well Handled Ltd, is aimed at those working within the Health & Social Care Sectors as a general introduction or update on the safer principles of handling and use of handling equipment and the associated importance of risk assessment and duty of care.

The course will cover the promotion of safer principles of handling and efficient human movement in relation to the maintenance of independence of patients and service users and their mobility, the care of more dependent patients and service users in bed and the use of appropriate equipment to assist them whilst in bed. The course will also cover working with hoists and appropriate sling choices within the care environment.

Our course is specifically aimed to raise awareness and standards within the Health and Social Care environments and would be suitable for Occupational Therapists, Nurses, Physiotherapists, Support Workers and Care Managers who's roles involve working with or assessment of patients and service users.
